Exhibition Title: PEACE TRIUMPHANT

Curator: The Ernest Hemingway Foundation of Oak Park /The National Veterans Art Museum

Email: ehfop@sbcglobal.net

Phone: (708) 848-2222

Description of Exhibition: An exhibit of collages on the theme of "Peace Triumphant," in honor of the 100th anniversary of World War I. Named after the Oak Park-River Forest War Memorial. The monument is composed of three larger-than-life sized figures in bronze representing the World War I forces on air, land and sea. Behind the soldier, pilot and sailor is a stone figure, representing Columbia in the act of sheathing her sword (indicating the end of war). A bronze wall plaque on the north side is engraved with the names of 56 soldiers from the Oak Park and River Forest area who lost their lives during World War I. Four plaques encircle the first tier of the pedestal base and are engraved with the 2,446 names of the enlisted men from the two communities. Open to artists ages 5 - 18
